

Special Guests & Workshops

We are blessed and honored to have PWOC's very own Shellie Kelley as our main speaker. Shellie has served in PWOC leadership at the local, regional, national and international levels. She currently works with the Office of the Chief of Chaplains.

Another blessing is the return of our musical team from the 2007 conference, Rochelle Wheeler and accompanist, Cindy Stumme. Reviewing the comments from 2007 revealed quickly that the music was one of the most appreciated and highly rated aspects of the event.

Additionally, there will be many workshops at the conference covering topics ranging from PWOC leadership and Christian missions to parenting and military marriages. Special topics will also be covered. If you are interested in leading a workshop, please submit a Request for Consideration form. This form is available at www.pwoonline.org and through the regional blog site, www.centralpwoc.blogspot.com.

Time to Relax & Reflect

Windermere Conference Center provides a beautiful setting both indoors and out. A short hike up the hill leads to a beautiful chapel overlooking the lake. Wireless access is available in certain locations. There is a gift shop on the grounds as well.

Free time will be scheduled between general sessions and workshop sessions. Please do not plan on leaving the Windermere campus during these periods. This time should be a time of true reflection spent developing your relationship with God.

Food & Fellowship

Beginning on Thursday night, attendees will enjoy the meals served at Windermere. All three meals are served buffet style during set hours. A banquet will be held on Saturday evening before the evening session. Attendees staying in lodge rooms and cabins will also have kitchens available for after-hour snacking.

The Lakeview Lodge has a spacious lobby with comfortable chairs in which to sit and read or spend time with friends. Also available are large 'gathering rooms' with room for fellowship and games.

Roommate Preferences (up to 6 per room)

Lodge Rooms

Each lodge room has a queen-size bed and two sets of bunk-beds. With two in the queen bed, the room sleeps six. This year, to ensure plenty of rooms for all, the minimum number in each room will be three. A few of these rooms are designed to be wheelchair accessible and have one queen with only one set of bunk-beds.

Cabins

Each cabin level sleeps up to nine in one queen, two sets of bunks, a hide-a-bed and a rollaway. A few have only one bath and the others have two. Reserve early!

Motel Rooms

The motel is the lodging option closest to the dining and conference facilities, though not as well equipped as the lodge. Both motel levels require the use of stairs to reach the rooms. Each room has one queen and two twin beds.

All lodging arrangements must be made through your local POC.

Regional Conference

This conference provides opportunities for training, fellowship and networking. Planned to inspire and enrich, it is also a blessed time for spiritual renewal and fellowship.

Everyone is welcome and can benefit from attending. This is not just for current leaders; any woman who enjoys the company of others or is seeking to deepen her relationship with Jesus Christ will enjoy this special weekend.

Another opportunity available is serving on the next Regional Board. Interviews will be conducted during this weekend and the new board will be installed at the Sunday morning service. Requests for Consideration applications are online now.
